Teachers To Be Added To High School Staff

Four teachers will be leaving the staff of the Antioch Township High School at the end of the school year. They are Ruth Nickelson, English; Nada Lightheart, Speech; Joellen Minton, Girl's P. E.; and Margaret Purman, Home Economics. The announcement was made at the meeting of the Board of Education of the school on Wednesday, April 17.

Albert Dittman recommended several teachers to the board to fill the vacancies created. He has announced that additional teachers will also be needed for next year to take care of the increased enrollment and to enrich the curriculum.

The teachers recommended are Miss Ann Robinson, Girls' P. E., a June graduate of MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill.; Dennis Sullivan, Speech and Audio Visual Aids Director, a June graduate of Western Illinois University at Macomb, Ill.; Larry Landis, a graduate of Western Illinois University who has been teaching at the Petersburg High School in Petersburg, Ill. Mr. Landis will teach in the Social Studies area; Karl Miller, completing a year's work with the Science Foundation Program at the State College of Iowa at Cedar Falls, Iowa. Mr. Miller has previous teaching experience. He will be teaching in the Science area.

At least three additional teachers will be hired for the coming year. Enrollment is expected to rise from 850 to 950, and additional courses will be added to expand the curriculum.

The board decided Wednesday night to complete Segment 4 of the program of fencing the Athletic area. The work has been done gradually, by areas. The

Bells to Ring For Freedom On May 1

The United States Treasury Department is asking the pastors of all churches in Illinois to ring their bells at 10 a.m. on May 1 for two minutes. The purpose is to mark the opening of the Freedom Savings Bond Drive and to call attention to the freedom which Americans enjoy, in contrast to the May Day observances behind the Iron Curtain where parades of military might and celebrations of materialistic accomplishments highlights the occasion.

State and city church federations and diocesan authorities as well as church publications are calling the event to the attention of all pastors and asking them to join in the event.

May 1 Is Law Day

May 1, 1963, was proclaimed Law Day U.S.A. by President Kennedy on January 25, 1963. Law Day, the President says, becomes a significant answer to Communism's May Day demonstrations.

Locally, observances of the day are scheduled throughout the county. A public program at the County Court House at 10:00 a.m., May 1, in Waukegan will feature Judge Minard Hulse as the speaker.

Mock trials, complete with lawyers and judges, will be held before three High School assemblies in the county. The attorneys will argue hypothetical cases for both the defending and prosecuting sides. At Libertyville High School, Judge Dickson, probate judge, will preside over the mock court. At North Chicago, Judge Phillip Yager, Circuit Court judge, will weigh the merits of the case. At Zion-Benton High School, Judge Carey will preside.

In addition, Judge Moran will be interviewed on "Viewpoint" on WKRS on April 30.

New Church Holds First Service Sun.

The newly named Christ Lutheran Church, East Junction of Highways 83 and 50, Salem, Wis., will have its first service Sunday, April 28, at 10:30 a.m. Sunday School will begin the following Sunday, May 5, at 9:15 a.m.

The Steering Committee, a group of local men interested in the program of the new church, met with the Rev. L. Myron Lindblom, Regional Director of American Missions and the Rev. Herbert Hanson, Executive Assistant to the District President and selected the name Christ Lutheran Church.

The construction of the building is completed, however final details on the interior will continue to be carried out by volunteer workers.

This new congregation is supplied with all basic needs and facilities and thus enabled to function through funds made available by the Division of American Missions of The American Lutheran Church.

H. School Band Gets Superior Rating in Illinois State Contest

On April 20, 1963, the Antioch High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Rush, attended the annual Illinois High School State Band Contest at Dun-dee High School.

For the first time in the history of Antioch High School, the concert band received a superior rating in state competition. The band received superior ratings from all three judges as well as a superior rating from the judge in sight reading. The four superior ratings given by the judges gave the Antioch Concert Band a clean sweep for the day.

This makes the tenth superior rating received by members of the concert band this year in state competition. The Dance Band received a superior in competition last February, eight events received superior ratings in the solo and ensemble contest, in March and the Concert Band with a superior rating in April.

All of you may hear the Antioch Concert Band on May 18, when the band and junior band will give its annual spring concert.

R. Plechaty Elected Demo Chairman

Rose Plechaty, committee woman of Precinct 6, was elected Democratic Township Chairman at a recent meeting of the Democratic Committee of Antioch Township. She was elected to fill the vacancy left by the recent death of Edward Cooney.

Body Of Drowned Man Found Tuesday

Relatives and friends of Hoyt Moses, the Winthrop Harbor man who drowned in the Fox River Monday night, found his body Tuesday afternoon, pursuing the search after others had given up.

The Antioch Rescue Squad dragged one-half mile of the river for one and a half days trying to find the body and finally gave up. Dragging the river at this point is an almost impossible task, said Ernie Westlund of the Antioch Rescue Squad. Equipment is continually fouled up on fishermen's set lines, debris, etc.

Divers from the Great Lakes Naval Station also aided in the search.

When the Rescue Squad finally abandoned the search, relatives and friends of the drowned man asked for and received permission to use the equipment of the squad to continue the search. Jack Frost, well-known race driver and a brother-in-law of the dead man, was among the group who found the body.

Hoyt Moses, 27-year-old Winthrop Harbor man, was drowned Saturday night when his boat capsized in the Fox River. He was accompanied by Roy Clay of Zion at the time of the mishap. Clay swam to a nearby boat and was rescued by a fisherman.

Flood Survey Is Stymied By Lack of Data

The lack of reports from the Antioch area is holding up completion of the U. S. Army Engineers' survey of the Chain O' Lakes flood damage of 1960 and 1962.

The Chain of Lakes Area Flood Control Committee and the U. S. Army Engineers today made a plea for volunteers to help gather in completed "Statement of Loss Forms" regarding losses and damages, suffered by area residents in the spring floods of 1960 and 1962.

Several hundreds of these forms were requested by the various subdivision, associations and affected individuals of Lake Marie, Lake Catherine and Channel Lake areas but to date the response has been very lax.

The Flood Control Committee feels the poor response might be due to use of the U. S. Army Engineers' "Loss Form" in the area which many find rather complicated to fill out. Members of the Flood Committee attended the meeting Wednesday evening, April 24th, of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club and sought their help in the drive to get this much needed information. The Committee will provide and suggest the use of their "Loss Form" which is very simple and can be filled in and completed in a few minutes.

The Committee is anxious to complete this phase of the Flood program and it is imperative they have the immediate full cooperation of the homeowners and those who suffered these losses. This information is vitally needed for presentation to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to enable them to take constructive action in this area.

The Committee has checked and finds that hundreds of homes in the area were affected by the floods of 1960 and 1962 and are submitting the following subdivisions in the Antioch area where response has been lax, and "Statements of Loss" are urgently needed: Shady Nook, Morley's, Grandview, California, Willett's, Indian Point, Forbick's, Pesat's, Smith's, (Venn Rd.), Beechwood, Chain O' Lakes, Rest Haven No. 1, Rest Haven No. 2, Wilts, Woodbine, Woodcrest, Channel Lake Shores, Klandike Point, (Little America), Theiger's, Lotus Park, Joe Ferrin's, Ed Smith's Heart O' Lakes, and Jackson Park.

Only the Federal Government can cure the flooding in the Fox River Basin. These are the findings of a thorough study made by the Chain O' Lakes Flood Control Committee and they further state that the possibilities of obtaining Federal Flood Control for the area hinges upon completion of the flood damage reports drive.

The Committee states the entire shoreline of the Chain O' Lakes area has been canvassed including both shorelines of the Fox River to McHenry with excellent results on the return of completed "Loss Forms" and are now urging the cooperation of the Antioch Area for the early completion of their Loss Forms.

Loss forms can be secured at the Antioch News office.

Your Public Library-Treasures in Print

When TV first became popular, there was considerable fear that reading would become a lost art. Instead, people — and particularly young people — seem to be reading more than ever.

This is National Library Week. We're all being reminded to avail ourselves of the Fifth Freedom — the right to read. It would seem, from some of the facts we learned from Betty Lu Williams, librarian of the Antioch Township Library, that little reminder is needed in Antioch.

The third grade from Antioch Grade School was at the Library when we arrived. The children are brought to the library regularly to return books they took out at the previous visit and select new ones. The library was humming, and Betty Lu was kept busy for a while helping youngsters find books and checking them out.

This is one of thirteen classes that make regular trips to the library. Of course many children come in by themselves at other hours.

The Children's room at the library has reached its capacity. There is no room on the shelves for more books. A great many of the books are out; still the shelves are crowded.

The same crowded conditions prevail in the other sections of the library. There is a sad deficiency of material on some subjects. But, aside from the fact that new books cost money, there really isn't room for more books, without discarding some already on the shelves.

There were 508 new library patrons this year, says Betty Lu Williams. 3,248 people in Antioch Township now have library cards and used the library last year. Over 40,000 books and periodicals were circulated.

High school students use the library regularly, seeking material that is unavailable at the school library. During a time when certain assignments are given, all books on a certain subject may be out, Miss Williams says. At times like this, students will crowd the reading rooms beyond their capacity, many of them sitting on the stairs to study, or finding any available space.

"We've been remarkably fortunate," says Betty Lu, "in the small amount of vandalism to books. Rarely is a page removed or defaced. The greatest trouble Antioch librarians have run into is the disappearance of books on certain subjects. The books are taken out without checking out and not returned." The fields most often suffering this depredation? Books on sex education, photography, automobiles and radio.

The Antioch Library borrows about 200 books from the State Library Bookmobile, which comes every eight weeks. Betty Lu travels regularly to DeKalb to borrow books from the DeKalb Regional Library, particularly adult fiction. Of 200 she borrowed on the last trip, only 50 were left in the library within a week.

Students and young adults read little fiction. History, science, non-fiction of various kinds is most popular with this group.

Any books not available at the local library can usually be procured from the state library, Betty Lu says. If you don't see what you want, ask for it and she'll get it.

Periodicals are important, too, says Betty Lu. Magazines often have current information in them that can't be found anywhere else. They try to keep periodicals on file for five to seven years, but it's hard to find room for them. About 1,000 magazines were circulated among library patrons last year.

All through the school year, of course, there is a steady stream of school children looking for information on various subjects and books they need for their school work. In addition, with bad weather, adults have taken out more books through the winter months than during the summer. Use of the library always dropped noticeably from the end of May to the end of June, then started to increase again.

This is when Miss Williams and Ruth Demis, assistant librarian, always planned on having time to do the big jobs necessary to keeping the library in order. Last year, they benefited from no such lull. Use of the library continued steadily. They're waiting with interest to see if use of the library will continue at a steady level through this Spring.

A good deal of the two librarians' time is spent just shifting books from one place to another on the shelves, trying to make room for books as they're returned. If all the library books were ever returned at once, they'd be in trouble—there just wouldn't be any place to put them.

A record-lending service is an adjunct of most public libraries now-a-days. There's no room for one at Antioch. Within the limits of the available space, Librarian Betty Lu Williams arranges displays for the pleasure and benefit of library patrons. At present, they're featuring a display of the paintings of Shirley Grego, local artist.

The value of reading is indisputable. The classroom alone can not produce truly educated people. Reading is a habit that is usually formed early in life. Access to good books, through the public library, stimulates and broadens the interest of the child in many things. Adults find books they couldn't afford to own at their library, both reference books on hobbies and fiction for relaxation. Your librarian, with her knowledge of the books on hand and those available from lending libraries, can often help you find material you couldn't locate by yourself.

Enjoy the Fifth Freedom — use your Library.

Buy Some Insurance

Antioch isn't doing very well in the Cancer Fund Drive. With only a week to go, about half the quota (which is $600.00) has been reached.

Probably it's partly because there are so many personal appeals being made for funds for various worthwhile causes, that we tend to forget any that are not made directly and personally.

The Cancer Fund will make no door-to-door drive this year. Those wishing to donate are asked to send their checks, made out to the American Cancer Society, or cash, to the First National Bank of Antioch.

There are probably few of us whose lives have not been personally touched by cancer by the death of a friend or relative. And few who don't fear the disease and long to see it conquered.

The greatest pity is aroused by the newspaper story of a child dying of cancer. The mere mention of a child for some material article by such a child is usually answered by a flood of expensive gifts, expressing the sorrow and helpless pity we all feel for the small one doomed to die. We would like to give these back their health and life, but we can't, so we try to make their few days happy.

Probably some pleasure is felt by even the sick child receiving such bounty. But only a small and passing pleasure, compared to that which a return of health would bring.

We can't help the little ones already near death. But we can keep countless hundreds from being doomed to the same death.

Tremendous strides have been made in the last few years in the early discovery and treatment of cancer. It's cost a lot of money. It will cost a lot more to keep the research going until the secret of cancer and its prevention is laid bare.

But never was money better spent. Cancer strikes everywhere, at all ages and all degrees. And all the money in the world can't buy back a life on which this disease has taken a firm hold.

So we have to invest our money in this search now, hoping that the cause and cure will be found before we, or one of our loved ones, join the list of cancer victims.

So let's invest our money now in the best insurance we can—the hope of wiping out the threat of cancer. A dollar now may save your life, or your child's, or your grandchild's.

A Sunday Closing Law?

One of the bills before the State Legislature would make it mandatory that business houses close on Sunday.

The bill is frankly being pushed by businessmen who are tired of trying to compete with merchants who stay open on Sunday.

Naturally, these businessmen hate to lose money by closing Sunday. And they don't want to have to stay open to compete. But this isn't a very good reason for forcing everyone else in the state, both merchants and customers, to comply with their wishes.

Regardless of how many amendments are tacked on, the law would be discriminatory. It would be another invasion of personal rights, and for no better reason than that some merchants don't want to have to meet the competition of the Open Sunday stores.

In a resort area like the Lakes region, people would be deprived of their livelihood if the law were fairly enforced. If it is to exempt certain types of business, it will be unfair and a denial of basic American rights.

Legislators shouldn't have to waste their time on bills of this sort. We have enough laws limiting our individual rights now.

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

These April showers that always bring May flowers, have been accompanied by enough wind and cold to make the earth's seeds pull their heads tighter around them and snuggle closer to Mother Earth's breasts. This week even those brave magnolia blossoms, coaxed into bursting forth by a few warm days of summery sun, have huddled back tightly to their limbs. However, the strong green of our lawns and the delicate lace green of the willows, give the promise of things to come.

THE LATEST REPORT: Even if the weather won't settle down to it, Spring is here! The baseball season is on! All local eyes will be watching the San Francisco Giants this year, including the Sox fans! Reason? Our own local Jack Pregezer will be on the mound for that team. I think I'll get behind them just for that reason alone! Pats of Pluck, Jack! Dr. Fred Bobzien and family returned sunbathed and rested from their Florida vacation last week. If you think you have the doldrums lately and feel down in the dumps, think of those new homes on Depot St. who literally will be! Dottie Lindblad discovered they put sirens on Police cars to blow when people go over speed limits in Waukegan. . . and speed limits aren't the only limits that some people ignore!

FORGET YOU NOT: This is Cancer Crusade Month. Let's check it now! That rummage, bake, and green thumb sale for the benefit of the Cub Scouts, will be this weekend in the old Gibbs and Jensen store on Lake St. The Methodist Church will hold a like sale the same place on May 16 and 17. How about making a trip to the Library this week during National Library Week?

THE LAST DROP: Morrie and Ruth Pickus recently viewed Dave Merriek's "Stop the World, I Want to Get Off" in old Chicago. I haven't seen it, but my question would be "To Where?" while "everybody" is polishing his golf sticks (including George Plack, who is even polishing those new ones). Don Cardiff has been doing same with chopsticks. He joins the Chun-King sales family this week. Our "Velly-best" in all you do, Don.

DID YOU HEAR: The recent revision of the Emerson quote, "He is more successful, who does something and fails, than he who does nothing and succeeds." Amen. So, keep plugging away. . . Annie Mae

PROCLAMATION

The present state of world affairs makes it especially fitting that each of us, as citizens of this great nation, should reaffirm our faith in the rule of law and in the supremacy of government by laws rather than man.

The Congress of the United States, and the President by official proclamation have designated May 1 as Law Day U.S.A. The basic aims of Law Day are to foster increased respect for law, for independent courts which uphold the law, and for a deeper awareness of the benefits and responsibilities of citizenship.

Liberty and equality for the individual are what distinguished our system of government from Communism, under which millions of people today live in fear and tyranny. No better time could be chosen to call public attention to our great heritage of individual liberty under law.

NOW THEREFORE, I, M. Cunningham, President of Board of Trustees of the Village of Antioch, Illinois, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 1, 1963, as Law Day U.S.A. in the Village of Antioch, and call upon all citizens, organizations, and schools to recognize this special day with suitable programs, ceremonies and educational activities.

Dated at Antioch, Illinois, this 17th day of April, 1963. (Signed) Mayor Murrill Cunningham

By the Rev. Fr. Edmond E. Hood

Do not make sport of an uneducated man, or you may dishonor your own forefathers.
Do not lend to a man who is stronger than you, or if you do, act as though you had lost it.
Do not treat a man with disrespect when he is old, for all of us are growing old.
Do not exult over a man who is dead; Remember that we are all going to die.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUKIN

SPRINGFIELD—Wandering around the capital city last weekend one got to wondering who was keeping the store back in Lake County.

The Lake County Courthouse was well-represented at the state convention of town and county officials with County Board Chairman Robert Dickson (Warrens) heading the county board delegation.

Listed among the board visitors were Bruce Frost, of West Deerfield, who heads the board's legislative committee; Kenneth Henke, of Benton, chairman of the zoning committee; Clarence Voras, of Elia; and Robert Depke, of Warren.

County officials on hand included Coroner Robert Babcox, Probate Clerk Hugo Schneider, Probate Judge LaVerne A. Dixon, County Auditor John Darrow, and County Treasurer Karl Berning, who resisted the temptation to try one of the House of Representatives seats on for size.

In addition to attending the sessions of their various officials' associations, the visitors spent considerable time in the capitol watching the legislature in session and in meeting with Majority Leader W. J. Murphy to check on the progress of legislation.

Supervisor Dickson and Berning were particularly interested in the legislative redistricting for Lake County which has been proposed by Republican members of the repap committee.

The proposal puts Cuba and Watconda Townships in the northern district instead of joining it to the more contiguous southern district.

Since the southern district would include all of Democratic North Chicago and Deerfield Township, which has a heavy Democratic population, Dickson foresees Democratic control of the new district in a few years.

Berning, who gives the appearance of a man running for the legislature, would like to be backed by the heavy GOP votes to be found in Waukegan and Cuba.

If Dickson and Berning find the repap proposal distasteful, it is nothing to what Henke will probably think of a bill introduced by Rep. Murphy which will make further discussion of the controversial new county zoning ordinance anti-climatic.

Rep. Murphy's bill would eliminate any rezoning except at the request of the property owner and it would prohibit any restrictions on repairing, rebuilding, or remodeling buildings which are in non-conforming areas.

In other words, if your tavern, house, or factory burns down or is damaged you could restore them and in the process, improve them.

This bill would seem to eliminate the possibility of ever rezoning an area on the scale proposed by the Lake County Regional Planning Commission in its new zoning code.

Some real tear-jerking oratory was heard on the floor of the House Friday as legislators debated a bill that would provide a $5,000 homestead exemption on the homes of senior citizens 65 years of age and over.

The bill would also provide a $1,000 personal property exemption.

The bill passed the House, but is doomed to defeat in the Senate, according to State Sen. Robert Coulson, since the bill excludes Cook County.

Sen. Coulson also pointed out that a change in the revenue law must be done through constitutional amendment and a referendum.

The bill undoubtedly provide handsome tax relief for the elderly, but it would also place a tremendous burden on owners of other property since the loss of revenue

Every Congressman Should Get A Letter Exactly Like This

The following letter received by Representative E. Bradford Morse (R-Mass.) speaks eloquently for itself:

"Dear Congressman Morse:

"I hate to tell you my troubles, but I have tried everything else I know—I feel that only you can help me now.

"I have a dependent relative staying with me who has very little fiscal responsibility. He is very good-natured and means well, but he keeps buying presents for my wife and me, and our two children. He charges these presents to my account. When he sees something that he thinks we need he buys it for us.

"Many of these things are not needed by us and in very few cases are they exactly what we would have bought if we had bought these things ourselves. Because he doesn't work for a living, money doesn't mean too much to him and he tends to buy the first thing he sees and doesn't shop around like I would do if I were purchasing items. He is also quite generous to the poor and needy, but often gives to those he doesn't know who feed him a soft line.

"I just received a bill for his last spending spree and it gives me a sick hopeless feeling. I keep thinking how better off I would be if I could just spend that money for the things I want and could give to the people and charities I think are needy. Honestly, he does so much of my spending that I tend not to give money to charity anymore.

"He won't listen to me, but he will listen to you because he respects you. Please use your influence to cut the spending habits of my Uncle Sam.

"Sincerely,
"Jack A. Wilson
"Winchester, Massachusetts."

"You've got his plate."

would have to be made up elsewhere.

Rep. Murphy revealed he is conferring with the State Liquor Commission on revisions in his bill which would put more teeth in the liquor control laws.

The bill, which has been endorsed by the Tavern Owners Assn. of Lake County, would put a definite limit on the time a tavern could operate while appealing a license suspension or revocation.

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

As I promised the people of Illinois, my budget message delivered to the General Assembly today asked for no new taxes for the forthcoming two-year fiscal period.

This giant step in the fiscal recovery of Illinois was accomplished by integrity, perseverance, better enforcement of existing tax laws, a common sense approach to building roads and sound economy.

With the tools at hand, our work was done as expertly as possible. After appropriation requests were checked by the Budgetary Commission—a legislative group—a task force of private auditors assembled by our Department of Revenue went over the requests with a fine tooth comb to give Illinois one of the finest budget screenings ever known.

In my State of the State address to the Legislature last January 9, I told the Senators and Representatives that "my budget request will be a document that will say to each of you and every other citizen—'your state government is trying to hold the line on expenditures in every way humanly possible, without endangering any essential service or function.'"

We have done what we set out to do. Illinois has come a long way since the days when the money in the General Revenue Fund was continually depleted until it had a $13 million deficit when my administration came to Springfield in 1961.

The compilation of a budget is an arduous and difficult task. It also is a task which I believe can be done more efficiently and expertly. For this reason, I recommended in my State of the State address that a unit in the Executive Department be established along the lines of the Federal Bureau of the Budget.

Such a unit would allow more continuous and detailed scrutiny of all operating agencies of government—not by the agency itself, but by an independent voice in the Executive Department.

Agreement on this point generally came not too long ago from a group of distinguished citizens participating in a University of Illinois study conference. The group recommended that the Executive Department be provided with more effective means of discharging its responsibilities for the budgetary operations of the State of Illinois.

The Antioch Laundrette as every woman knows who patronizes the place, serves free coffee to its customers. This month they've changed their free coffee service into a worthwhile method of painless extraction of donations for the Cancer Fund. A hand-printed sign on the coffee urn says, "Is a cup of coffee worth a nickel donation to the Cancer Fund?" And the Cancer Fund container sits prominently beside the coffee pot.

We'll bet even a lot of non-coffee drinkers dropped some coins in. The container's doing well.

Phyllis McMillen started out just to help produce a historical pageant for the Woman's Club. From this, she progressed to dressing a group of dolls in costumes of the times they represented.

Now, she's kept busy speaking on the Queens of History and exhibiting her costumed dolls to various clubs and groups. Her next talk will be before the Antioch High School Faculty Club.

If you want to hear her speak on the lives of the romantic queens, you'd better catch her pretty soon, though. She's already thinking of a new project—the wives of the American presidents.

Overshadowed by their famous husbands, the presidents' wives are forgotten by most of us. Mrs. McMillen has a knack for forgetting out the human traits which are overshadowed by much-publicized events and dominant character traits. For example, though she's an admirer of Abraham Lincoln, she has gathered from her reading that Lincoln, though a great man, was a very poor husband.

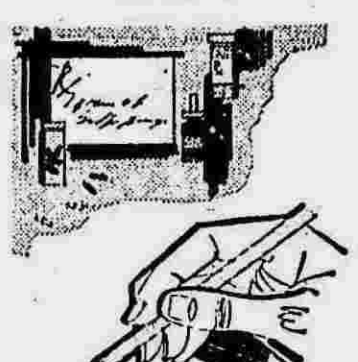

Speed kills. Insurance companies have released reports that 9 out of 10 accidents are caused by speed. In spite of this, a bill was introduced in the state legislature to raise the legal speed limit to 80 miles an hour—a more "realistic" speed, they felt.

If by "realistic," they meant it would save the trouble and expense of arresting drivers going over the present limit, they're probably right. Though if it's raised to 80 mph, they'll probably go 90.

But if by realistic, they mean it's good, or will cut down traffic accidents, the insurance companies can prove they're wrong. And insurance companies are mighty realistic.

While walking along a highway at night always wear or carry something white, says the Chicago Motor Club. Pedestrians wearing dark clothing cannot be seen by motorists driving on dark roadways at high speed.

Forced Housing

A Bill has been proposed in the Illinois Legislature which would make it a crime to use race, creed, or religion as a criteria in choosing the person to whom you wish to sell your property or to whom you wish to rent living or sleeping accommodations.

To make the law more palatable, its sponsors have set up "property classifications" (which raises the question of constitutionality) so that in its original form the Bill only purports to apply to those residential accommodations which have four or more living units.

The Bill seems to be dishonest when it states a single family home owner may discriminate, but a multiple family owner is a criminal when he discriminates.

History has proven, however, that whenever this type of "foot-in-the-door" legislation is placed upon the books, the next step in later years is to propose amendments which will narrow the restrictions still more. These amendments are much easier to pass than the original question.

In the 1961 General Assembly a similar Bill was defeated, which applied only to buildings with ten or more units. This year it is down to four. What happens next session?

The proposal places judicial powers in the hands of a politically appointed agency of the State which will act both as prosecutor and as judge of the accused. There is no easy way to judge what constitutes discrimination and there is danger of libel if a property owner is forced to publish his reasons for refusing any single applicant. It has long been considered a virtue for one of the discriminating in the selection of one's friends and neighbors.

As proponents maintain that discrimination is the cause of slums. This is hard to believe when it is obvious that there is an ample supply of standard housing available to those who can pay. The contents of this Bill would possibly have merit as a declaration of policy by a religious group, but it has no place in governmental law. However, it is interesting to note that religious groups are specifically exempted from compliance with the provisions of the proposed law.

This is restrictive legislation and the obvious attempt to make it less controversial by having it apply to a smaller group of owners at the outset should not persuade the public to remain silent. The Legislature should again soundly defeat this attempt to encroach upon human rights as they pertain to the ownership of portions of this free land of America.

Parents Asked For Pre-Schooler Info

Kindergarten registrations are now being taken at the Lake Villa Central and B. J. Hooper Schools.

In order to enter kindergarten next year, a child must be five years old on or before Dec. 1, 1963. Parents will have to present a birth certificate or some other proof of age before a child will be allowed to attend.

Parents are being asked to register their children now, and to contact any friends in the Lake Villa district who may have a child eligible for kindergarten. School authorities would also appreciate knowing of any new children entering the school district who will be attending school next year.

Compiling the information as to how many children will be entering school next year will help save overcrowded room conditions next year.

Springfield Background

By Robert Coulson
State Senator

The State's Manpower Needs

Most of the state's money is spent on salaries directly or indirectly and most of the increases in cost result from increases in the number of employees.

The Public Aid Commission has repeatedly said that if their staff was larger they could give better service and eliminate much fraud and take families off the relief rolls.

The Parole Board could give better service if they had more staff members. The Youth Commission could do a much better job of salvaging youthful offenders if they had a staff five times as large. Every school would like to have more teachers and every institution needs more caseworkers and attendants.

I have seen the truth of their arguments illustrated. As an assistant state's attorney dealing with juveniles, I came to believe that if we could provide a juvenile case worker for every two or three young persons in trouble we could salvage or rescue perhaps five times as many as are being reformed now.

The need is fantastically great and the cost is fantastically high. Here is where I begin to drift away from the social worker's approach, because in this job I must solve this need within a framework of what taxpayers can pay to support it.

Tabulate for yourself the total number of new employees needed in your district alone to achieve the minimum requirements: a thousand teachers, five hundred parole officers, a thousand juvenile officers, eight hundred employment counselors, two thousand family advisers for people on relief, plus our district's share of sales tax investigators, prison guards, staff for higher education and special education, and attendants and case workers at other state institutions.

Remember that each individual added employee can be justified in good faith. It can be proved that each one can enrich the state by more than his cost. Remember also that these are only the "reasonable" and "minimum" requirements; and that if these are granted next year, you will see demands for more. Many a teacher, adviser and case-worker now urges a ratio of one employee for each 30 or 50 or 12 cases; but really will never stop until there is a ratio of one to three or one to five.

Most of my background has been in teaching and social work. Even the practice of law is a kind of social work, and I certainly agree that we should have more lawyers, and indeed more politicians.

But someone must be left at home to grow potatoes. Someone must produce the wealth that is to be used to pay the taxes for these salaries. Even after mechanization, automation and intensive cultivation of the land, we can carry only what we

New Driver License Station

Springfield, Ill., April 22—Lake county will soon have a new, modern, consolidated driver license examining station providing better service and accommodations for the public and improved facilities for giving driver examinations. Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter announced today.

The station is scheduled to open July 1 in a building now under construction at 919 North Milwaukee avenue, Libertyville. Two existing stations in Waukegan and Barrington, housed in cramped quarters and providing inadequate parking areas, will be closed.

The new building in Libertyville, measuring 40 by 100 feet, will be air conditioned and will provide sufficient space to permit giving the written examination, the vision test and the road sign recognition test to many applicants at the same time, thereby virtually eliminating waiting to be tested, Secretary Carpenter said.

A broad parking area will provide space for 65 cars just a few steps from the station, and will have the added safety advantage of making it possible to give a portion of the road test on an off-street area away from traffic, he said.

A steadily increasing work load at both the Waukegan and Barrington stations has made both the interior and exterior facilities inadequate. Mr. Carpenter said. Establishment of one large station in a central location such as Libertyville to serve the county will provide better service, and at less cost than renting two smaller locations, he said.

The 11 examiners and two clerks now employed at the Waukegan and Barrington stations will be assigned to the new Libertyville station, Secretary Carpenter said.

Lake County Fair Will Be July 24-28

can afford to carry. In the field of delinquency and misbehavior, I know in my heart that if we assigned one good case worker to each child in trouble and made it a full time job to get that child straightened out, we could save perhaps ten or twenty times as many juveniles from a wasted life. I have seen this intensive care succeed, and I know it can.

But I know also that society cannot afford to use this man-to-man defense. We must do the best we can with the resources we have.

For this society is built around the fellow who grows the potatoes and manufactures the tools. We must keep him in business or we will have no social workers at all.

Recognition Ball Will Further Mental Health Society Aims

Even though invitations were recently received, the list of confirmation of attendance from the dignitaries to be honored at the Recognition Ball is growing by leaps and bounds. The latest report shows that State Representative Mr. W. J. Murphy and Mrs. Murphy of Petite Lake will attend the Ball and participate in the Grand March, as will Township Supervisor Lloyd Murrie and Mrs. Muriel. Sheriff and Mrs. C. Larson also conveyed the message they will be attending. Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty and Mrs. Petty, and Lake Villa Township Supervisor and Mrs. Edward Tiede also will be among our local dignitaries to be honored.

These names will augment the following Lake County officials: Congressman McClory, State Senator Coulson, State Representatives Conolly and Baislow, Judge Moran and Judge Hulse. The Recognition Ball is being held May 4 at the Rink Ballroom at Jackson and Belvidere St., in Waukegan, and is sponsored by the Lake County Mental Health Society as a means to support the Mental Health Clinic to further the urgent need for additional professional services and diminish the backlog of a 3-4 month waiting list.

Not only does this Ball give the citizens of Lake County an opportunity to honor their officials, but also serves to remind us that May 1st is May Day, U.S.A., and these officials were freely elected, a luxury many countries do not now enjoy.

Trying to REDUCE? ALMOST ALWAYS HUNGRY?

NOW YOU CAN LOSE WEIGHT WITHOUT GNAWING 'Hunger Pangs'

"Hunger pangs" can take the joy out of life and the will out of power, and make sticking to a reducing diet an agony of discomfort.

But now, with TECKTROL Tablets, you can lose weight without that familiar "half starved" feeling. There is nothing mysterious about how TECKTROL Tablets work. They contain a number of scientifically selected natural harmless substances which, when taken with water, swell to many times their size in your stomach, yet are without significant nutritive quality, contain only about 1½ calories per tablet.

REACH FOR A TECKTROL

Take one-half hour before meals TECKTROL will make it easier for you to satisfy your appetite with less food than you ordinarily would eat. They will not interfere with your digestion, and you will thoroughly enjoy your meals. If "hunger pangs" are your problem — reach for a TECKTROL instead. You suffer "hunger pangs" only when your stomach is empty. Several TECKTROL Tablets, with plenty of water, will give you blessed relief.

HELP YOURSELF "STICK TO IT"

Whatever your system of reducing may be — or if you merely want to maintain your present weight — give your power a hand. Let TECKTROL help you to "stick to it."

Tells Aims of Cancer Drive

This year our volunteers distributed no fund-raising literature during our annual Crusade," Dr. A. H. Sommers, Crusade chairman of the Lake County Chapter, 1963 American Cancer Society Crusade, said today. "Instead, they have mailed your family's copy of Cancer's Seven Danger Signals, a leaflet especially prepared for family use. In this way, more than 30,000,000 copies of these life-saving facts were distributed in the greatest educational drive in the history of the Society."

The Society began a public education program early in its history," said Dr. Sommers, "in the conviction that a public educated to cancer's danger signals, and to getting an annual health checkup, is much better protected against cancer than one ignorant of the disease. For, in no other disease is the patient so responsible for his own health and well being."

That public education is paying off can be seen in the number of lives saved—1,200,000 cured cancer patients in the United States—and the fact that one in three cases is being cured today as contrasted with fewer than one in five 25 years ago, Dr. Sommers said.

"Studies in leading cancer clinics show a higher and higher percentage of early tumors in the total case load," he said. "This means that a more alert, informed public educated to respect cancer, not to fear it, is acting on the Seven Danger Signals and getting an annual health examination, including rectal and colon examination and, in women, the 'Pap' smear. The seven danger signals are: (1) Unusual bleeding or discharge;

Grass Lake
P.T.A. Meets

The Grass Lake P.T.A. chose the purchase of a tape recorder as its project for the year at a meeting on Monday, April 22.

The P.T.A. members were told by representatives of the Lake County Scouting Council that the charter of the Boy Scouts could not be renewed until they had more committeemen and another Den Mother. The P.T.A. sponsors the Scout programs and hopes to find someone to fill these needs in the near future.

The second and third grades (teachers Mrs. Ingeborg Woghart and Miss Agnes Kraemer) tied in the room count.

Mrs. Ingrid Hawkins entertained the group by singing German and Swedish songs.

The Teachers' Appreciation luncheon will be held June 3 at Lorenz's Smart Country House. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Laurence Yopp at 395-1515.

Dr. Sommers quoted New York's former health commissioner, Dr. Leon Baumgartner, who said, "If someone invented a drug that would cure half the present cases of cancer, the excitement would be beyond belief. We have such a drug, and I am completely serious. It is communication."

"That sums it up in a nutshell," Dr. Sommers said. "This is what public cancer education is all about."

Disabled Vets Can Collect Pensions

Veterans suffering from non-service connected total and permanent disability and having limited income and net worth may qualify for disability pension, according to information released by the Illinois Veterans' Commission today.

Edward B. Akin, Administrator, issued a reminder to all wartime veterans saying that disability pension may be payable when a veteran suffers total and permanent disability from non-service connected causes. Wartime service of 90 days or more is required. Consideration may be given a claimant when there is present any impairment of mind or body which renders it impossible for him to follow gainful occupation. Monthly rates of pension may vary from $40 to $100 according to amount of veteran's income, number of dependents and his net worth. Payment of pension is subject to meeting all requirements of regulations.

Mr. Akin urged any veteran having a question regarding possible entitlement to pension benefits to contact the nearest office of the Illinois Veterans' Commission.

In Lake County veterans should contact the Illinois Veterans' Commission office, H. D. Blackwell, Service Officer, Room 203-04, 108 S. Genesee St. in Waukegan. The office is open Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Her responsibilities have continued in the Lakeview Council when she held the offices of Finance Chairman and for the past two years has led the Girl Scout cookie and Brownie peanut sale as the Council's Products Chairman.

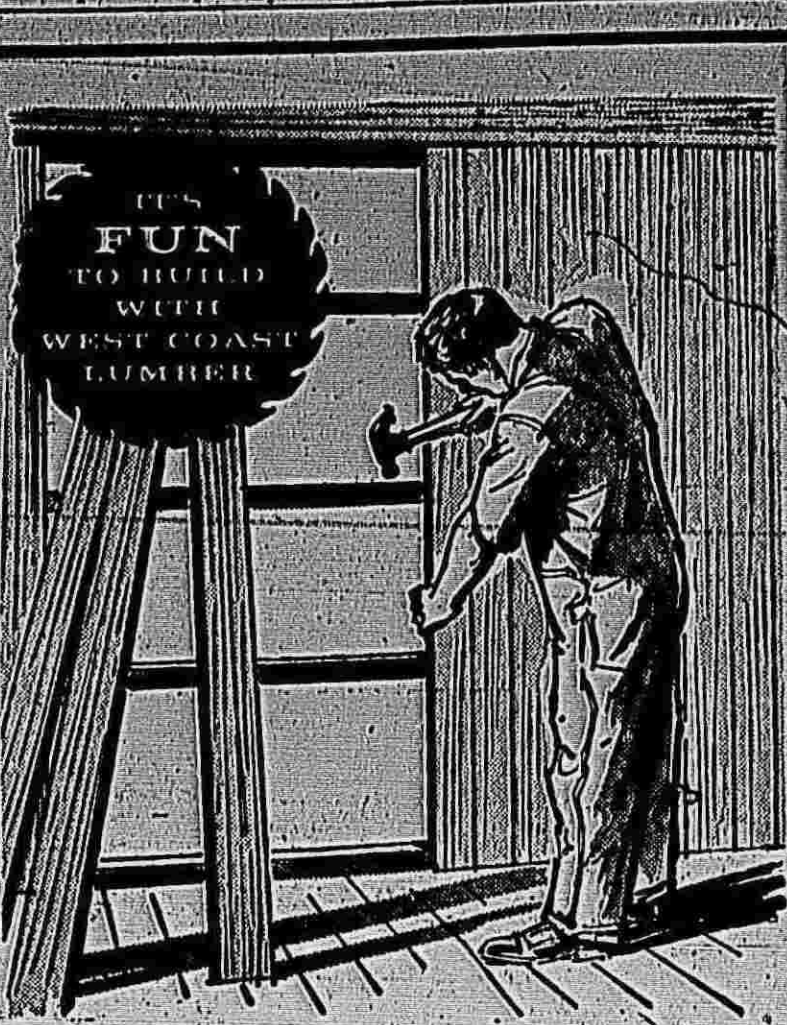

Upon accepting the office of president, Mrs. McCleod said, "It is stirring to be a part of such a large endeavor for so many girls. Mindful that any large number is built up one by one, it is satisfying to know that each one of us is needed to contribute to the strength of our youth and hence of our nation."

Handy Shopping Guide to Series E U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

No matter what their denomination, all U.S. Savings Bonds have these things in common: They're one of the safest and most widely held investments in the world—owned by tens of millions of American families.

They're replaceable in case of loss by fire, theft or plain carelessness.

They return $4 for every $3 invested, at maturity.

They're cashable at any time without red tape (and you can defer the tax on the interest until the Bond is cashed).

They do the double job of helping to make your individual future, as well as your country's future, secure.

Buy the ones that fit your budget—at your bank, or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

This is an increasingly popular size with millions of American families. If you'd started buying one every month ten years ago, you'd now have $5,230. On sale at all times for $37.50

In 7½ years you can turn this Bond in for a crisp hundred dollar bill. You'll be getting 3½% interest and your government's thanks. You can buy it for only $75.00

This one is tailor-made for the investment of bonuses, tax refunds and other windfalls. In 7½ years it grows into a tidy $200 nest egg, yet costs only $150.00

Grandfathers can give one of these Bonds to eight grandchildren (or eight of them to one grandchild) in any one year without having to pay the gift tax, because the outlay per Bond is only $375.00

Very few people can buy one of these out of every paycheck. But lots of businesses buy them as a good safe investment for company surplus funds. And widows who suddenly find themselves with a large insurance check can do no better than to put part of that money into one of these king-size Bonds. $750.00 board member and first vice-president are some of the officers she has held in the old Lakeside Council. She also served on the committee which merged all the north Lake County individual councils into the present ten neighborhoods of the Lakeview Council. Her responsibilities have continued in the Lakeview Council when she held the offices of Finance Chairman and for the past two years has led the Girl Scout cookie and Brownie peanut sale as the Council's Products Chairman.

Upon accepting the office of president, Mrs. McCleod said, "It is stirring to be a part of such a large endeavor for so many girls. Mindful that any large number is built up one by one, it is satisfying to know that each one of us is needed to contribute to the strength of our youth and hence of our nation."

Mrs. McCleod has been a resident of Lake Villa for the past 18 years. She is the mother of four girls, two attending Antioch High School and two attending B. J. Hooper School.

Handy Shopping Guide to Series E U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

No matter what their denomination, all U.S. Savings Bonds have these things in common: They're one of the safest and most widely held investments in the world—owned by tens of millions of American families.

They're replaceable in case of loss by fire, theft or plain carelessness.

They return $4 for every $3 invested, at maturity.

They're cashable at any time without red tape (and you can defer the tax on the interest until the Bond is cashed).

They do the double job of helping to make your individual future, as well as your country's future, secure.

Buy the ones that fit your budget — at your bank, or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

This is an increasingly popular size with millions of American families. If you'd started buying one every month ten years ago, you'd now have $5,230. On sale at all times for $37.50

In 7½ years you can turn this Bond in for a crisp hundred dollar bill. You'll be getting 3½% interest and your government's thanks. You can buy it for only $75.00

This one is tailor-made for the investment of bonuses, tax refunds and other windfalls. In 7½ years it grows into a tidy $200 nest egg, yet costs only $150.00

Grandfathers can give one of these Bonds to eight grandchildren (or eight of them to one grandchild) in any one year without having to pay the gift tax, because the outlay per Bond is only $375.00

Red Cross Helps Disaster Victims

When tornadoes struck in many places in the Midwest, the Red Cross Chapters went into action immediately. The disaster committee is responsible for the care of people immediately following a natural disaster. Every chapter is required to have a committee appropriate to hazards whether tornadoes, flood, hurricane, explosions and fires that affect many families. Briefly the Rescue Committee assists in rescuing people in debris or flood waters together with the Civil Defense. Shelter committee in preplanning secures shelters, usually schools or churches where there are rooms for families to group together, cooking facilities, sanitary facilities. That committee is composed of a manager who is responsible for the shelter; a registrar who registers families as they come in; both to know who is in the shelter and to answer inquiries on disaster families and friends throughout the country. A nurse is on duty at the door to see if anyone should go to the hospital rather than the shelter. A food committee to provide emergency food, upon arrival of the people and to serve regular meals. Clothing committee to provide any necessary clothes on emergency basis. All this is at no charge to the people. It is a gift of the American people through the Red Cross.

If any families with disaster-caused needs for their homes if they own them, clothing, food or medical and nursing care on an individual family work case basis. A local committee must approve every award given a family on rehabilitation. This, too, is a gift of the American people to their stricken neighbor.

Plan College For County

The State Bank of Zion was appointed depository of funds for the Lake County Community College Association at a meeting held Monday, April 8, at the Grayslake High School.

L. H. Rouse, secretary of the association, said the bank will now begin calling in funds pledged by five chambers of commerce and eight high schools supporting community college plans.

In connection with the fund campaign the association appointed Herbert W. Pearce, treasurer of the association, who will be bonded, is superintendent of the Zion-Benton Township High School.

Rouse said five survey firms were contacted to conduct a survey of the feasibility of establishing a community college in Lake County. Another firm is being interviewed before a decision to retain one of the survey firms is made.

The shortest time in which such a survey would be completed is four months, Rouse stated in explaining the work as carried out by the survey management consultants.

The association's executive committee was empowered to retain one of these firms not only to make the necessary survey, but to aid in the public relations work necessary to inform residents of the County concerning the advantages and needs of such an educational institution.

Speed Kills On Nation's Highways

Nearly nine out of every 10 casualties on the nation's highways in 1962 were caused by human error and lack of judgment. And the speedster still ranks as the Number One Killer on the road.

These and other grim reminders were disclosed in a report issued by The Travelers Insurance Companies. The report is compiled annually from information provided by state motor vehicle departments.

Of the 40,500 persons who lost their lives in traffic accidents last year, 32,300 died in accidents caused by driver error and traffic law violations. Moreover, according to the report, nearly 3,000,000 persons were injured in auto mishaps blamed on drivers' mistakes.

The fast driver continued to be the greatest menace on the highways. Nearly 13,000 deaths and more than 1,145,000 injuries were directly attributable to excessive speeding.

A Traveler spokesman pointed out that like the majority of accidents—most highway casualties could have been avoided. They were caused by human failure, he said, and it is clearly evident that our biggest task is to get this message across to the American public.

"If we can do this effectively," he added, "we have an opportunity to make dramatic improvements in the field of traffic safety."

This course is one of the two nursing educational courses which the Red Cross offers to the homemakers of Lake County. This course includes thirty odd simple skills a homemaker needs to know in caring for her sick and injured in the home. The groups have thoroughly enjoyed the course.

These courses were co-sponsored by the Lake County Home Bureau in these communities with many of the Home Bureau taking the course.

Another course is in progress in Lake Zurich with Mrs. Earl Hughes as that instructor. Two other instructors will be teaching in Waukegan and Libertyville in the near future.

BOATING WITH BOWMAN

IT TAKES A FLUKE TO STAY PUT

By Hank Bowman
(Courtesy Sequoit Harbor)

Anchors, like fire extinguishers, all too often are never given much thought until they're needed.

A heavy stone tied to a crude rope was the anchor used by the earliest boatmen. But it took a heap of muscle to handle stone anchors large enough to keep even a dugout canoe from straying.

Today the dead-weight anchor has been replaced by far more efficient and lighter weight hooking action types. One major manufacturer claims that if a lightweight anchor has been designed centuries ago, the entire history of the world might have been changed.

This sounds like an extravagant statement but it's true that the Greeks, Romans, Spanish and the English might all have handled their ships differently in exploration, trade and battle if they could have made their rigs stay still when they wanted them to.

The size of the anchor you need for your boat will depend on many factors: the type of bottom on which the anchor will be dropped; wind velocity; exposure of the mooring location; the hull size, form and weight as well as the scope (length of the anchor line called anchor rode-by the salty set).

Weight alone has little to do with an anchor's efficiency. That the design is important is apparent when it's realized that a concrete block will hold little more than its own weight while the modern lightweight patent anchor with pivoting flukes can hold hundreds of times its weight.

A small outboard utility of under 15 feet can be anchored safely under most circumstances with a 4-pound patent anchor. A 15 to 20 foot outboard will require an 8 to 12 pounder—the heavier the boat the heavier the anchor.

A lightweight 25-foot cruiser, either outboard or inboard, should be safe from straying with a 12 to 15 pound anchor while a 30 to 35-footer will ride out a heavy blow with a patent hook of 20 to 25 pounds.

The anchor line should be long enough and heavy enough so that it will cushion sudden shock loads due to wave action and should lead nearly horizontally away from the anchor, that is parallel to the bottom, even when it is under strain.

As a general rule of thumb, the anchor line should be about seven times as long as the depth of the water in which the boat is anchored.

DIONE RATHBONE crosses the tape in the 440 yard run. Rathbone finished in first place with a time of 54.3 seconds. Following closely to place second is teammate Tom Tantlinger.

ARBOR DAY, OH ARBOR DAY—Doc Jensen and the Northern Illinois Conservation Club are beating this famous day to the punch. Last Tuesday they had the kids at Grass Lake School plant another 150 pine trees on the school grounds. These were in addition to the thousand planted last year, to replace those that didn't make it and them that were "lifted" by nefarious grown-ups. On the same day the young ones at Lotus School stuck 350 pines in the ground at their school and on Wednesday the "studies" at Channel Lake School planted 150 trees on their school grounds and 350 more in a special plot set aside for them at Oak Point Park-out-on-173. The trees are getting so thick it's hard to see the forest. Nize going, Doc. (Arbor day is the last Friday in April, girls).

Lots of us aim to do right—it's just that we're such poor shots.

The most interesting people walk through the portals of Sorenson's Bait & Bull Shop—like for instance, the other day, Ed and I were chewing the fat with Harry Novotny (Harry is a top-kick game warden and a most popular guy hereabouts, girls). In walks this chick—baseball cap, fuzzy looking sweat shirt, blue jeans that no doubt could stand by themselves, sneakers and a minnow bucket—gimme a buck's worth of "crappie catchers."

Talking to yourself isn't so bad except for the stupid answers you get.

FISHING REPORT—The bunch from Charlie Haling's are knocking off the stripers like flies with Charlie's flies yet) on the Fox River just past Bud Holtz' Blarney Island; in the evening. Gads, where do they all come from? (the stripers and the stripper catchers).

They're also getting 'em in the north end of Channel Lake and out from Rudy's on Marie.

Crappies were beginning to go into high gear but that short spring and the return of winter slowed 'em up a bit. They can be "had" in almost every channel.

Bill Brook was out fishing and caught a four inch bluegill. Don't laugh, girls! On Bill's lap they measure 'em between the eyes.

We have as much fun as sane people.

Bruce Muench, our well-liked fisheries department biologist was out on the Chain last week with a completely new rig, scouting around, preliminary to his "grand" comprehensive survey of our lakes, to see what's in 'em and why. He got his fish shocker going and it was most interesting to see what was swimming around in our crystal unclear waters, and where. I can't give any details until later. I promised.

Trains are not afraid of people.

Those foreign protest marches we're reading about have nothing on Antioch. There are long lines of Finny denizens of the murky deep, swimming back and forth in front of Sequoit Harbor—it seems Fe Weiss is one of a foursome with Walleye Brozik, Earl Tonyan and Golden Roach Sorenson and he's been taking a beating at the water holes. Every shot seems to wind up in the deepest part. So he set up a tee and was practicing water hole shots across Sequoit Creek. What's the complaint? Said Blackston Bass: It's gotten so a decent, law-abiding, self respecting fish can't swim by this place without getting hit on the head with a golf ball.

A girdle is an accessory after the fact.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER—DEPT: Do infants have as much fun in infancy as adults do in adulthood?

Our town looked like the "Deserted Village" Monday night. I looked high and low, but scarcely a man to be seen. So I gave up, and on my way home, at Nelson's on Grass Lake Road, I heard a lot of loud growls (they were only pussycat meows, girls) coming from inside, and lo and behold, here were all our guys, making like a Lion. So I ordered a bowl of beet borscht and listened in. There was this Dr. Fred Mayer from up Wisconsin, telling all about his trip to Eskimo land, 2500 miles due north from here. Most interesting of course, was his narration about how the Eskimos lived, what they did and the kind of clothes they made and how they didn't know how to fish. Yoipst!

And that reminds me of the time these four intrepid

Bi-State League

Thursday, April 18

Rudolph Turkey Farm and Dalgaard's IGA are back in the top spot in the exciting race for the championship in the Bi-State League. (continued on page 10)

Speedway To Start Season On May 4th

Waukegan, April 19, 1983—Saturday, May 4, will be the first time local area racing fans will have a chance to again see their favorite stock car driver in action as the 1983 season unfolds with a gigantic triple program, at the Waukegan Speedway.

Modifieds, Sportsmen, and Late Model type stock cars will have a big day cut out for them. Inspections and trial runs will start at 12 noon, and continue on until time trials get under way at 7:15 p.m. that night. Racing, comprised of heat races and a feature for each division, will begin at 8:30 p.m.

A repeat show of this type will again be held on Saturday night, May 11, with a rain date set for Sunday night, May 12. There will be no rain date for the May 4 show, as inspection and trial runs are scheduled for that date at the Hales Corners (Wis.) track.

The first run for the regular Sunday night program of modified stocks and sportsmen, has been tentatively set for Sunday night, May 10. After May 11 the Saturday night shows will consist of sportsmen and late model stock cars.

The May 4 events will guarantee at least $100 to the winner of each feature if he is among the top-three qualifying. Season championship points will begin for the Sportsmen and Late Models, but will not begin for the modifieds until the Sunday night programs begin.

THE 19th HOLE

BY GEORGE DIAMOND

Informality is the keynote of the George Diamond Country Club at Antioch. That's what makes this private golf club so different from most others.

We're mainly concerned with good golf, good sportsmanship, congeniality, and good food. And the sports shirt, not the stuffy shirt, is more in order in our clubhouse.

We've told you about our championship 18-hole country club course that is rated as one of the best in the Midwest. And the clubhouse facilities—including the men's, women's and children's locker rooms—were custom built for comfort and relaxation. But there are many "extras" that go with membership in the private George Diamond Country Club, adjacent to the George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House that is open to the public all year around.

These "extras", available to members and their families, include a 70-foot outdoor swimming pool, ringed with lounge chairs. There's even a wading pool for the very young. A life guard is always on duty.

Tennis and badminton courts, horse-back riding trails, a place to stable your own horse, a 100-acre hunting preserve, and access to the water sports on the Chain-O-Lakes are just a few of the places that go with country club living. Our golf pro will be available for lessons or tips on how to improve your game. And our pro shop will cater to all your sports needs.

A new club room has picture windows that offer a breath-taking view of our 300 beautiful acres. We've just planted 300 more trees to add to that beauty.

For snacks at the quick-service club counter, if you care to pause between the 9th and 10th hole, we've put in a newly-developed electronic range. For more leisurely eating there is a private dining room where the food and prices are the same as in the adjacent open-to-the-public George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House which has coast-to-coast fame for No. 1 quality. We also have a private dining room for members' children. The Go-Go-Go Room for dancing is open to both members and to the public. There is no cover and no minimum charge in the Go-Go-Go Room and we even absorb the excise tax.

Get your application in early for membership in the George Diamond Country Club because we'll not accept more than 150 members. Call 195-0999 for more details, or drive out to Route 59 and Grass Lake Road and see for yourself. You'll be amazed at the reasonable fee.

(Watch for next week's column by Mr. Diamond, president of the private George Diamond Country Club and the adjacent George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House that is open to the public.)

Following closely behind one game back are El-Mar's, Roepenack, Masonry and Charlie's Channel Inn. Next Thursday will tell the tale. Charlie's spilled Gibbs & Jensen 3 games, led by their youthful stars Art Doty and Stan Binkowski, who rolled 629 and 596 respectively. For the past 9 weeks, Stan has been blasting the maples for a 194 average—a nice work.

Dalgaard's IGA, led by Larry Dewar's 602 and Gordon Renschler's 590, blasted Colonial all three (Ed Slavik 555). John Milhouse (568) and Jack McNitt (540) led Slide Inn to a clean sweep over Knapp Shoes. Rudolph Turkey Farm took two from Beau-Vue. Gus Siedschlag with 614 and George Rudolph with 577, starred for the Turkey Birds, while our youngster, Ben Edgman shooting 601 and John Vasta 579, for the losers.

El-Mar's, led by Bob Morton's 611 took a pair from Roepenack's (R. Atwood 593). Haydon Homes (M. Ozga 568) took the odd game from Dortmund Inn (Lee Gallagher 582).

Easter Seals Help Accident Victims

Rehabilitation of workers injured in industrial accidents is an important part of the program being developed at the Lake County Easter Seal Treatment Center, 1103½ Greenwood Ave., Waukegan, according to Hyman Poratt, president of the Lake County Easter Seal Society.

Poratt disclosed the plans in special appeal for support of the Easter Seal Campaign directed to Lake County industries. "Many stroke victims and accident victims have already been returned to their jobs in industry as a result of treatment received at the Easter Seal Treatment Center," Poratt said, "and now that we are in our new, larger quarters we expect to have more patients from industry."

"We anticipated receiving a substantial portion of the Easter Seal Campaign goal from industry and business in Lake County," Poratt said, "but thus far only $950.00 of the total $12,293.50 collected thus far has come from industry."

The Easter Seal Treatment Center provides the services of a physical therapist and an occupational therapist in the fight against crippling diseases and accidents.

Treatments are given in the Center, in the homes, and in several Lake County rest or convalescent homes where rehabilitation programs are being set up.

Patients are referred to the Treatment Center by family physicians, plant physicians, and insurance doctors.

A sliding scale of fees has been established based on the ability of the patient to pay, to help defray the cost of the treatment program, Poratt said, "but if a person cannot pay the treatment is still provided."

Earl Sorenson was high bowler for the night. His 657-series with a 255 and a 202 and 200 game put him in the spotlight. Larry Dewar had a 573 series with a 200 game; and Bob Schartz had a 556 with a 212. Ray Nastrucci had a 213 game with a 537 series.

Other over 500 series were rolled by Steve Krakowski 522, Tom Hay 519, Chet Jerzakowicz 517, John Lund 518, Claude Anderson 551, Bill Davis 504, Erv Kerosen 506, Jim Larson 502, Fred LaChance 503, Bill Heigl 500.

Jim Larson had a 200 game and John Selzer a 202 set. With only one more night to play, Myers Standard Service has the first-place in the bag. They have won 59 of the 99 games they played. Reliable Meats is the next highest with 55 wins, but haven't a chance of ending in first place even if they win all three and Myers loses. Myers ended up in 10th place last year when there were 12 teams in the league. A couple new men on the team didn't hurt them any. Likewise for Reliable.

HERE'S A REAL EGGHOLE

If you are a businessman, you have been figuring out your income tax under new rules that apply to your transportation, lodging, means, and entertainment costs. And remember, there is no exemption allowed for production time lost in daily bookkeeping. It doesn't set well with a hard-pressed private citizen when he reads of the loose manner in which congressmen are permitted to list their expenses for travel on junkies around the world, for which tax money pays. Instead of an itemized statement they turn in a report that reads, for instance, "lodging $400, meals $800, transportation $500, miscellaneous

$300. No details are required about who, when or how they fed a guest, whether the cost for entertainment, transportation and lodging pertained to government business, etc.

Why shouldn't a congressman be required to fill out in detail the same kind of an expense account as a private citizen, before he turns it in to the government for payment? After all it is public money he is spending and that should be more carefully accounted for than personal income.

If the government is really trying to plug taxloopholes, why not include the public officials who travel at taxpayer expense, as well as the private citizens who travel at their own or company expense? In other words, let government set a good example.

Cost of running the Department of Labor rose from $27.8 million in fiscal 1955 to around $100 million this year.

STRENGTH FOR OTHER DAYS
This is my commandment, that ye love one another. —(John 15:12).
The more we hold to our vision of every person we meet as a child of God, the easier we find it to come to know and understand others, and the happier is our association with others.

Inside Antioch High

By Marilyn Grass
Last Saturday the band won its first superior at State Contest in Dundee. They received a superior, or first, on their prepared numbers from each of the three judges. They also received a first in sight-reading. The prepared numbers the band played were "March" from the "Second Suite in E-flat" by Gustav Holst, "The Second Symphony for Band" by Erickson, and "Fanfare and Allegro" by Williams. They sight-read "Ballet of Pensive" and "Now the band begins preparing for its Annual Spring Concert, which will be May 18 this year.

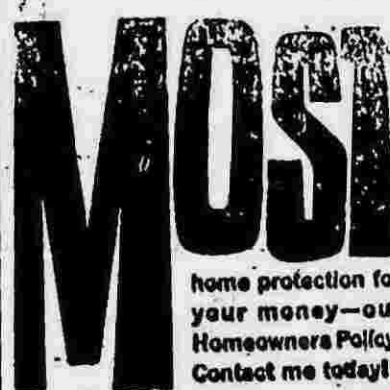

The new varsity cheerleaders were elected last week. They are Sue Gorlitz, Le Nelson, Sandy Mender, Kathy Lissard, Davi Stratton, and Grace Young. These girls and others tried out individually before the entire student body.

Miss Benedict, a social studies teacher at Warren High School, was the guest speaker at the GAA banquet last Saturday. Miss Benedict talked about her three trips to Italy and showed a film strip of that country.

Also at the GAA banquet the Sportsmanship Award winner and Color Guard Captain for next year were announced. Rosa Pleviak received the Sportsmanship Award, which is given every year to an outstanding Senior girl who has been in GAA all four years. Cheryl Reidel will be the new Color Guard Captain.

The Bi-Phy-Chem is sponsoring a contest among high school students to "Name the Skeleton." This nameless skeleton lives in the Biology Department and has been pictured several times in the TOM TOM. Students may enter as often as they wish as long as they pay a ten cent entry fee each time they do so. First prize is a five dollar bill.

Work is proceeding well on the Junior-Senior Prom, which will be held May 11 in the cafeteria. Committees have been organized and decorations have been planned. Antioch's track team, rated by many first in the conference, has been living up to expectations. They have won all their track meets so far, often by nearly thirty points. The golf team, too, has been winning, but the baseball team has not been doing so well.
